

Child Studies 11 Communication Plan

Leanne Mombourquette

Course Overview

Child Studies introduces the student to the study of Child Development; the importance of the child; the influence of family on Child Development; the responsibility of those who care for children; the challenges of teen parenthood; pregnancy and childbirth and the developing child in the first year.

Topics discussed will include: growing with children, living in families, effective parenting, preparing for birth, physical, emotional, and social development during the first year and more.

Assessment Process

Chapter Tests – 30%

Class Participation – 10 %

Mid – Term Assessment – 20%

Projects – 15%

Assignments – 15%

In – class assignments – 10%

Contact Information

If you have any concerns, please contact me at the school (562-5464), or by e - mail: lmombourquet@staff.ednet.ns.ca. I look forward to a successful semester with your son or daughter. A copy of this Communication Plan should be retained for future reference throughout the semester. However, you can access a copy through the Sydney Academy Website.

Leanne Mombourquette